

COSI TABELLINI

Il peltro vanta una antichissima tradizione artigiana e, sino al '700 vasellame e stoviglie di questo metallo, più economico rispetto all'argento, ma altrettanto bello e appariscente, erano di uso comune in tutte le case, dalle più aristocratiche a quelle meno abbienti.

Abbiamo lavorato a lungo per ottenere oggetti che potessero dare emozioni. Non volevamo che sembrassero d'argento, né che fossero grigi oppure opachi, né che fossero come tanti altri. Hanno un aspetto massiccio ed una patina particolare, mai cupa. Maneggiarli é piacevole, vellutati al tatto stupiscono per la loro praticità. Si abbinano stupendamente a ciotole di ceramica o a piatti di porcellana ed acqua e sapone sono sufficienti a ridare loro l'originaria tonalità. Fatti con cura per sembrare "vissuti" donano alla casa il giusto calore. Ogni pezzo è realizzato con una lega sicura per contenere alimenti, approvata dalla CEE e dalla FDA Americana e richiede poca o nessuna cura.

Pewter boasts a very long handicrafts tradition and, since the '700's, italian dinnerware made out of this metal, cheaper than silver, but just as beautiful and striking, were commonly used in all homes, from the most aristocratic to the less well-to-do.

We have worked for long time in order to obtain objects which could give emotions. We did not want them to seem made up of silver, to be grey or matt or to be identical to many others. Cosi Tabellini pewter dinnerware have a solid appearance and a particular patina which is never dark. It is pleasant to handle them, they are velvety to the touch and their practical character surprises. They perfectly match ceramic bowls or china plates; you only need water and soap to give them again their original shade. They are accurately manufactured in order to seem "antiqued" and they give to the house the right warmth.

Each piece is made with an alloy that is food safe, lead free, CEE and FDA approved and requires little or no care.
